

Lecture on “Globalisation and Marginalisation of Hong Kong Business”

by Mr Nicholas Kwan,
Director of Research, Hong Kong Trade Development Council

Date: 6 October 2016 (Thursday)

Time: 11:00 am– 12:15 pm

Venue: Room 212,
Level 2, Cheng Yu Tung Building,
The Chinese University of Hong Kong
12 Chak Cheung Street,
Shatin, N.T.

Language: English

Abstract:

The evolution of a new world order since the Great Recession has presented severe challenges to Hong Kong business. How do local companies respond to these new challenges and opportunities? Drawing on HKTDC research of local firms, Nicholas will try to share his learning and vision on the promises and risks that Hong Kong business will face in the years to come.

About the Speaker:

Mr Nicholas Kwan, Research Director, heads a team of economists and research professionals to provide macro-economic and business research support to the HK Trade Development Council and its various stakeholders.

Nick was formerly the Asia Chief Economist and Head of Research of Standard Chartered Bank. Nick also worked at the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA), specializing in macro-economic and policy research, after spending 11 years with Merrill Lynch as its Regional Chief Economist, Asia Pacific. Nick is an economics graduate of The Chinese University of Hong Kong, with an MBA from Warwick University in the UK and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

ALL ARE WELCOME